

A Guide for the Celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation

The Seven Deadly Sins-Vanity, Anger, Lust, Avarice, Pride, Envy, Gluttony, Sloth. The history of this list goes back at least to Pope St. Gregory the Great, but while the list itself is not strictly biblical, the Bible reveals all seven. If one or more of these doesn't seem like a big sin to you, it almost certainly means you have already rationalized it.

VANITY

Vanity is excessive concern about manifesting my glory before others.

Have I been overly concerned about what others think of me?

Have I allowed this to motivate my actions?

Have I lied or exaggerated to make myself look good?

ANGER

Anger is undue desire for vengeance -undue in cause or in amount.

Have I harbored resentment, grudges, and hatred in my thoughts?

A Simple Guide to the Sacrament of Reconciliation

-Begin by making the Sign of the Cross.
-The priest will greet you and may offer a short reading from Sacred Scripture.
-You are then invited to tell the priest the last time you visited this sacrament .
Bless me Father for I have sinned, my last confession was 1 month ago, and these are my sins...
-Now you are ready to confess your sins.
It is best to start with any Mortal sins.
Try to confess your sins with numbers:
-If you do not know how to confess, feel uneasy or ashamed, simply ask the priest to assist you. Be assured he will help you make a good confession.
-When you are done confessing your sins say, For these and all of my sins I am truly sorry.
-After you confess your sins the priest will give you some counsel. Then the priest will propose an act of penance.
-Remember the penance.
-Now you are invited to recite an Act of Contrition:
My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Amen.
-The priest will give you Absolution. At the end of the prayer answer Amen.
-Lastly the priest will give you a final dismissal.
-After you receive this Sacrament, complete your penance and then spend some time giving thanks to God for forgiving you again. Our God is Love and Mercy!
